REFLECTIONS

We pause for a second to reflect on the scene of the past year. There are memories of friends, places and things. Happy faces, work and play. The record is written and we will forever hold fond memories of this wonderful year.

There is a certainty in this man
Who is unafraid to share himself with others,
Unafraid to become involved in the
Candid life of a student.

He engages with vitality
His learning and teaching life.
We admire the way he approaches its problems,
And he is our example.

We aspire to be like him
As he is like Christ.

To him we dedicate this book
In an attempt to return some of the respect
That he first gave to us.

ROBERT C. DAVIDSON

FOREWORD

The years after graduation will be the most important ones of our lives. While in academy, we must set our goals carefully and then strive to attain them. In order to make our youthful dreams become reality, we must work. Our quest to fulfill these dreams will be difficult, but not impossible.

Maturity and flexibility are the primary elements which will determine our success or failure. The world is ever-changing, and, in order to succeed, we must have the maturity to face it without qualms and the flexibility to change with it. Through athletic, scholastic, social, and religious activities, Andrews University Academy is dedicated to the development of the mind, body, and spirit that is necessary to meet this ever-changing world. To the students of Andrews University Academy we present the SILHOUETTE as a record of their growth in mind, body, and spirit during the school year of 1969.

MESSAGE TO SENIORS

Dear Seniors of 1969,

In addition to your scholastic accomplishments I pray that the Andrews University Laboratory School has inbred you with other values equally important in living a worthy Christian life.

I hope you have discovered the meaning and value of work, a factor upon which all human progress depends. Today, the challenge to good citizenship is the challenge to worthy employment.

In the school program you have been asked to conform to certain rules and regulations upon which the welfare of all depends. You have been encouraged to create an attitude of willingness to comply as an indication of respect for the rights of others. Such an attitude is basic to good citizenship and implies that there are duties, obligations, and responsibilities that accompany the privilege of freedom and choice.

In spite of the shadows that have hovered over the world - such as disregard for law and order, riots, very rebellious attitudes and actions, I trust that you have preserved your faith in yourselves, faith in humanity, and above all a faith in divine supremacy.

The heritage of knowledge that has been passed on to you, together with these three values, will acquire added meaning as you meet the challenges of life that await you. May they prove to be a source of strength sufficient unto the day thereof.

Sincerely,

Clifford L. Jaqua

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students of A.U.A.,

As we go to press to meet the early deadline of the 1968-69 Silhouette, the school year is only two months underway but it has earmarks of another great year. As we reminisce over the fall events, we recall the beautiful picnic day at Pennellwood with pie-eating, ballgames, water-skiing, and the spaghetti dinner. Then Elder Ward came and got us to do a lot of serious thinking during the Week of Prayer. The Sanjo campaign did it again by doubling their goal. Never in the history of the school did so many qualify for the ski trip. Surely the first slate of Student Association officers had enough steam to press all the pants in A.U. territory.

May we consider Heaven's invitation to be partners with Christ as the year rolls on to a soon-coming graduation day.

"He who called the fishermen of Galilee is still calling men to His service. And He is just as willing to manifest His power through us as through the first disciples. However imperfect and sinful we may be, the Lord holds out to us the offer of partnership with Himself, of apprenticeship to Christ. He invites us to come under the divine instruction, that, uniting with Christ, we may work the works of God."

C.S. 259

May we inspire each other to become Partners with Him.

Sincerely,

C. W. Mauro

4 Guideposts for Happier Living from Niles Federal

1

BE CONSIDERATE

Develop a sincere interest in people, their lives and their problems. Be understanding, and never build personal success at the expense of others.

2

HELP THOSE IN NEED

You will find few experiences so rewarding in life as the times you give a helping hand to folks in need.

3

CONTINUE TO LEARN

Stay mentally active, intellectually curious, receptive to new ideas. Education is a wondrous process continuing throughout life.

4

CULTIVATE THRIFT

Save regularly from the start. Thrift gives you an important extra margin for progress . . . for security . . . for success.
